What is a Staffing Service?

Executive recruitment and placement services specialize in matching the right people to the right jobs. Sophisticated recruitment methods, a network of contacts, an enormous variety of qualified candidates, an extensive data base and in-depth assessment techniques give the placement service an edge that is well beyond the scope of an organization's human resources department.

Good Listening Skills are Worth Developing

A good listener has a significant advantage over others. Success in all interpersonal and business relationships requires an understanding that nothing is more important than knowing the expectations, motivations and values of other people. The only way to do this is to listen and keep listening.

1. Don't listen out of politeness.

Listen for information that will increase knowledge, power and respect from others.

2. Prepare to listen.

Think about the speaker and the topic covered.

3. Do not speak.

Concentrate on the speaker give them your available listening capacity, which is about 400 words a minute.

4. Focus on listening.

Think about listening as a valuable return on an investment in time and energy.

Why is it that no matter what color bubble bath you use the bubbles are always white?

How do those dead bugs get into those enclosed light fixtures?

Whose idea was it to put an "S" in the word "lisp"?

If people evolved from apes, why are there still apes?

Why does Superman stop bullets with his chest, but duck when you throw a revolver at him?
